Peter,

I still have the electronic copies of the first application. The VIA is the Visual Impact Assessment, that is the reason it was returned.

Thank you,
Jessica

Ok,

What is submit the VIA? What is VIA? Did you get my email about the orientation of the builds being different on different pages of applications? Do you still have the first application hanging around - maybe can get the maps from that application?

Peter,

I am going to hold on to them in case they just want to submit the VIA. I am assuming the rest will stay the same. You are welcome to come in our office and look at it.

Thank you

Good morning Jessica,

Since the application was returned as incomplete - is it possible for me to get your copy of application number 2? Just figuring if you consider it not complete, maybe you might be throwing it out.

Peter,

I have attached the letter.

Thank you

Hi Jessica,

I hope you had a nice weekend. I am writing to ask if you can share with me the letter that was sent to Salmon's or their agent when stating that the application was returned as incomplete.

Thanks much

Peter
